Weekly Newsletter

Good morning Homelinks families. We have a few news items:

- Note two of the elementary classes are at pottery on Friday, Oct. 29th. Laurie Riehl's class will meet at Pridham's (138 12 Ave N) at 9 am sharp and will then walk back to Homelinks (dress for rain). Aloha Palmer's class will walk up @ 10:30 and will need to be picked up at pottery at noon. The younger classes will also have a short presentation titled 'Frank's Fiasco'. This is a story walk (in our gym) that follows a grizzly bear named Frank and how to be safe with the internet.
- The primary Outdoor Ed classes ended with plaster molds of animal prints. Thank you to Kristina for organizing such amazing classes. The intermediate Outdoor Ed will start Tuesday, Nov. 9th.
- Our grade 7 and 10 students will be receiving laptops. This school district initiative is intended to help provide a barrier-free access to technology for students. More information will be sent out soon.
- Please check out the science website for info all things science:
