

 Exercise 2

Read this boring paragraph:

My bedroom is nice. I share it with my sister. I have a nice bedspread. My curtains are white.

Now read the improved paragraph below and notice how much more interesting it is with the added details.

My sister and I share a great bedroom. It is cozy and pretty. The walls and ceiling are sky blue, and our mom painted clouds on the ceiling. Fluffy white curtains frame the window. The room is small, but we fit in two beds, a desk, and a bureau. Our grandmother made us beautiful quilts to use as bedspreads. I like to keep my toys and stuffed animals set up in my own way. You have to be invited to come into our room.
