Family Dance

Dance was well-attended and feedback was positive

Venue was discussed and found to be favourable. Canyon Hall was pleasant to work with

Next time, consider an MC and more games available for families to play

7. New Business

Busing Requests

Mr. Mitchell presented info and itinerary for upcoming field trip and a request for any financial support. School will not be supporting the trip with any finances.

Mrs. Riehl requested financial support for K-6 field trip planned for April 22/26.

Motion PAC will pay expenses for grade 7-12 field trip to the Harbour in total, less $50 per student. This will not include specialized activity fees.

Motioned by: Chisa

Seconded by: Leslie

PAC discussed contributing to finances for K-6 trip but decided to wait for confirmation as to whether this trip would happen without PAC contribution.

Cake Decoration

Colleen suggested a one-time activity class for students grade 4 and up, with piping lessons being taught by a local baker. She will research and bring a proposal to next meeting.

Family Wrap-Up Event

Discussion of potential year-end celebration for Homelinks family. Traci and Leslie to investigate venues, with priority given to Canyon Park for early June. Desire is for a family, picnic style event with activities.
